The Judges

Magdala (Maggie) Jean-Gilles: Magdala Joseph was born in Miami, Fla. She began modeling and playing basketball at age 15. Her basketball career consisted of captain for the North Miami Beach Lady Chargers at Broward Community College. She received an AA in criminal Justice from Broward and a BA in Sociology from the University of Tampa. Maggie was 1st Runner-up in the Miss Black & Gold Pageant and the Miss University of Tampa International Pageant. Now Mrs. Max Jean-Gilles (Philadelphia Eagles # 62). She is currently a substitute teacher and Basketball coach at Gloucester County Institute of Technology.

Richard Watson: Retired from 25 years in the insurance and mortgage industry, Dick's background is interwoven with the arts. In his youth, he attended St. Peter's College, majoring in social science, with a minor in theater arts. While living in Arizona, Dick was a dance instructor at the Arthur Murray Studio. In 1994, he was the State Director of the Mr. New Jersey North America International. Dick has judged variety of pageants and talent competitions for the past 20+ years. He is also a certified Miss America Pageant Judge. In 2004 he started the Miss New Jersey Super Teen Pageant.

Susie Buchanan: Susie is a manager for Ruth's Hallmark in Eagles Plaza, in Voorhees. She has lived in New Jersey for the past four years. Before moving to New Jersey Susie lived in Kentucky, where she and her daughter were involved in pageants.

Judi DeBerardinis: Judi is a graduate of "Rizzieri Aveda School for Beauty and Wellness" and is a licensed Hair Stylist, Cosmetologist and Etiologist. In the past, Judi was involved with the Miss Bellmawr Pageant. She is currently active in several charitable organizations which include the American Cancer Society, the Lauren Rose Albert Foundation and the ASPCA. Judi visits local nursing homes and gives haircuts to the members and enjoys spending time with her fiancé and his beautiful daughter.
